|  | Name                      |                               | Per             |
|--|---------------------------|-------------------------------|-----------------|
| Ev   | aluating Art Parc         | agraph Format                 |                 |
|  | is a p                    | aintina by                    |                 |
|  | 13 a p                    | anrening by                   |                 |
| Title of Piececompleted inportrays     |                           | Artist                        |                 |
| . Year   |                           | describe what is going o      | on in the piece |
| •  |                           |                               |                 |
| In this piece,shown/evident/a <sub>l</sub> | oparentElement of Art | is                            |                 |
|  | Give examples of how th   | he element is used in the pie | ce              |
| is c   | also shown/evid e  | ent/apparent bed       | cause           |
| Element of Art                                 |                           |                               |                 |
|  | Give examples of how th   | he element is used in the pie | ce              |
| This painting/pho                       | tograph/drawin            | ng/sculpture/piec             | e/work is       |
| an example of                                  | bec                       | cause                         |                 |
| Principle of Design                            | Des                       | cribe how it is arranged and  | give an example |
|  |                           |                               |                 |
|  |                           |                    |                 |

This piece conveys a _____mood/feeling

|  |
|-------------|
|             |
|             |
|             |
|             |
|             |